'How did they get loose?'
'I don't know.'
'This all happened in the Tenth precinct, The witness said that in the Tenth he had raided the houses time after time, but that it was not in his power, even as a captain, to suppress these houses.

"Why?" asked Mr. Goff.

"It's a failing of the law," replied the Captain Allaire said he reported these flouses every three months to his superior floers. He was not aware that the houses sold liquors in opposition to excise law.
"Well, captain," said Mr. Goff, "can you tell us how much money was collected from the disorderly houses while you were captain of the Tenth?"

"I don't know that any money was col-cted. I never saw any of it." "Did you ever ask any of your men about "No, I never did but once, and they de-nied all knowledge of it."
"Did you ever forbid them to collect any of this money?"

"Yes; I did."
"And also forbid them to collect money from gambling houses?"
"During the last six years that I was there there were no gambling houses in the orecinct." The captain gave it as his opin-on that the excise laws could not be per-tectly enforced in this city because the olice could not know of all the places here it is violated.

"How about these disorderly houses?" continued Mr. Goff. "You raided these houses every once in a while in order to get blood money, did you not?"
"No, we did not. We raided them in to drive them away from the pre-"Do you remember the murder 'Chick' urphy committed in your precinct?"

"I was just going to ask the question," replied Mr. Goff. Mr. Goff tried to call it to the captain's mind by reminding him Superintendent Murray at that time went on Murphy's bond, but the captain bould not recall the case. He denied also could not recall the case. He denied also that "greengoods" men had had any head-quarters in his precinct, and that "shell fakirs" had to pay for their privileges. Questions as to how many Christmas presents he had received from the liquor ers in the precincts the captain repl "None-oh, yes, wait a minute. I might have." Then he remembered that at different times he had received a basket of fruit or wines, but he never knew who sent

"No, I don't." 'Never heard of it before?" "And all this time you were captain you knew nothing about this

"No: I did not. Captain Allaire was then excused. Hattie Ross (colored) was then called, She swore that in 1879 she opened disorderly houses in Wooster and West Third streets. In answer to Mr. Goff's questions she said that she paid the wardman $0 a month for each house. This was paid to Captain Byrnes, now Superintendent She also testified that she paid the same amount of money to Captain Brogan, Shormerly kept a house in the "Tenderloin," der Captain Reilly, but never baid any oney there but once-$25 to Wardman oward. She then moved into Captain, now pector McAvoy's precinct. She paid no oney there, but had to keep very quiet. "Do you mean to accuse Captain Mc-Avoy of allowing you to run your house without paying protection money? You made a good deal of money there, did you not?" Yes, and lost, it again."

"How much of your money did 'Al' Adams get?" asked Mr. Goff. (Al Adams is a well known gambler.) "Forty-seven thousand dollars," replied the negress. Adams ran a policy shop and the witness said she lost this amount of money in his place in eight years. She was the keeper of a house in the "Tenderloin" about six years, but in all that time was not arrested once. At this juncture the committee adjourned until to-morrow.

MARRETT'S CHARGES.

Mr. Byrnes Says They Are Untrue-Schmittberger Rearrested.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.-Superintendent Byrnes heard of the testimony given against him by John Marrett a few minutes after that witness testified. He immediately locked himself in his office at police headquarters and for an hour examined papers bearing on the matter referred to by Marrett. Afterward, the superintendent said of Marrett: "All he says is untrue, except that he came to my house under false pretenses. When the proper time comes I shall tell my story in the proper place." Further than this the superintendent absolutely refused to say anything. Marrett said before the committee today that he had gone to the home of Surerintendent Byrnes with a letter for "Mrs. Byrnes" which had been given him by another Parkhurst agent; that the super-intendent took the letter, read it, took him by the collar, threw him into the parlor and forcibly detained him there; that Byrnes threatened to have him imprisoned for ten years, and by force and threats forced him to tell all he knew of the case of Charles W. Gardner, another Parkhurst detective, who had been accused of extorting blackmall from one Tillie Clif-Marrett also said that Superintendent syrnes had trumped up the case against ator Lexow expressed his opinion that uperintendent Byrnes had a right to extract information from Marrett. STATE UNIVERSITY BOYS ANXIOUS TO COME TO THIS CITY.

Exciting Time at a College Meeting Yesterday-Edgar Walts a Puzzle to Muncie Doctors.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 19.-An exciting meeting of a large faction of the students of Indiana University was held this afternoon to furnish suggestions as to the needs of the institution. The gathering resulted in such uproar that both sides went away claiming the victory. The contest graw out of an effort to instruct the Legislature not to vote appropriations for building or apparatus that could not be removed. For two hours pandemonium reigned, and it was impossible to hear the speeches for the noise. The removal side succeeded in installing the president, and two sets of resolutions were introduced. The first of these presented a radical sentiment in favor of removing the university to Indianapolis, and met with very little support; the second was more moderate, advocating a tax of one-sixth of a mill, to be applied for faculty, library and laboratory equipments, and also advocating removal. This met with such opposition that it was difficult to tell what was going on, there being a half dozen speakers on the floor at a time, and it was only by the president finally declaring that the resolutions were carried that further trouble was averted. Filibustering, calls for divisions and cheers revented clear discussion on either side. At chapel this morning Dr. Swain spoke to the students, asking their undivided support to secure adequate appropriations for the university, and the action of the students this afternoon in agitating the removal uestion was against his advice.

A WILD MANIA.

Walts-Stewart Case on the Order of the Ward-Mitchell Affair.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 19,-This afternoon Dr. Whitney, at the City Hospital, talked to the Journal correspondent, expressing an opinion as to the strange case of Edgar Walts, who was believed to have attempted suicide at the Hotel Kirby, Monday, through remorse caused by his boy over abandoning him. Dr. Whitney says he is now positive that Walts took no poison at the hotel, no matter how strongly the circumstances point to the contrary. He thinks had he been called there and been shown the letters and half-filled phial of morphine he probably would have said "poison" also; but he has been in a posiion to carefully diagnose the case and is now positive that Walts swallowed none of the drug.

The disappearance of Stewart threw Walts into hystero-epilepsy, a nervousness such as is more familiar to the opposite sex. While thus deranged he secured the polson and cunningly proceeded to adopt a course that he thought would induce Stewart to return. Dr Whitney says that Walts's mind is clearing up and that he will recover, but his unnatural feeling toward Stewart will not die out. Dr. Whitney says it is nothing more than a mild mania. The case greatly resembles the Freda Ward-Alice Mitchell case at Memohis, Tenn., two years ago. For the first time, to-day. Walts partook of substantial food and talked intelligently to his brother, who will take him to his home at Chal-

American Baseball Association Project Dies "Abornin'."

NEW YORK, Dec. 19 .- News was pronulgated last night which would indicate that the American Baseball Association recently projected has resulted in failure. Tomorrow, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, the National Board of Arbitration of the National League will meet to consider the statements of Fred Pfeffer and Billy Barnie, the suspended player and manager. Mr. Byrne of Brooklyn, Mr. Soden of Boston and President Young constitute the board, and the probabilities are that both men will be reinstated, ending a disagreeable complication.

Messrs. Barnie and Pfeffer held out until the last moment, evidently believing that an American association, to fight the National League, would yet materialize. However, the gentlemen seemed to have given up hope, for Mr. Barnie's application for pardon is in the hands of Mr. Byrne, while Mr. Pfeffer telegraphs that his is on the way. With Pfeffer back into the fold, the Brooklyn club has first claim upon the services of the second baseman, but President Byrne says that he considers Pfeffer's ment is to be meted out in this fashion. If all National League clubs refuse to sign him, he will be forced into a minor league or give up ball playing.

ANOTHER STORY OF ARSON, PIL-LAGE, BLOODSHED AND OUTRAGE.

Villages Laid Waste and Christians Tortured and Butchered-Prominent Armenians Imprisoned.

BERLIN, Dec. 19.-The Cologne Gazette to-day published a letter from Armenia telling of fresh horrors there, including twenty-three villages laid in ashes, eleven other villages pillaged and forty priests massacred. The letter says that the Turkish garrisons at Erzeroum, Irisa, Van, Tigranocerta, Babert and Moosh, altogether about 60,000 men, were sent against the Armenians. The commanders of those troops announced to the inhabitants of the villages: "We are ordered to put you to the sword for openly defying the government." The attack began on Aug. 18. The Turks were repulsed in the first instance. The massacres began Sept. 5. Those Armenians who submitted unconditionally were bound to stakes and then their limbs were cut off with saws. In other cases the victims were disemboweled and their eyes gouged out. Children were thrown into burning oil and women were tortured and burned to death. The troops plundered and burned the churches. Among those who fell victims to the savagery of the soldiers were forty priests, who were brutally massacred.

The British consul at Erzeroum was prevented from going to the scenes of the atrocities on the ground that it was not safe for any Armenian, he being an Armenian, to approach the places where the occurred. This did deter him from an attempt to learn the truth, but as he was trying to approach one of the devastated villages he was arrested. Among those who witnessed the atrocities was a Spaniard named Ximenes. The Turkish officers approached him and offered him large bribes to induce him to deny in the English papers the truth of the reports of the outrages. They also sought to bribe him to go to England for the pur-pose of delivering lectures on Armenia, in which he was to dwell on the contented condition of the Armenians. Senor Ximenes rejected the offers made to him

ACTION OF ANTI-TOXIN.

It Causes a Rash Resembling Chicken pox to Break Out on a Patient. NEW YORK, Dec. 19 .- There have been rumors current in Yonkers for several days to the effect that a patient treated with anti-toxin serum had been poisoned by it to such an extent that his body had broken out in sores. The patient was Alexander Laird, of Yonkers. He had lost his three children from diphtheria within three days and ten days ago he was taken sick with the same disease. Dr. J. Lindsey Porteus suggested the use of anti-toxin and secured some of the serum from this city. Mr. and Mrs. Laird are both inoculated with it. In the case of Mr. Laird the result was beneficial at once. Mrs. Laird although constantly exposed to the disease has not contracted it. The administration of the serum resulted in the breaking out of a rash. which, to an unprofessional eye, appears mush like chic tenpox. This is accompanied by an itching which is annoying to the patient. Dr. Porteus said last evening there was nothing to be feared; that the remedy had worked with perfect success so far as he could see. All doctors agree in this statement.

It is probabe that had it not been for attorney John I. Martin, who interfered, the negro would have been killed. Two detectives were suspended by Chief Harrigan for striking Wright, but were afterward reinstated. Judge Murphy later caused a sensation when he ordered that all persons having weapons upon their persons be ejected from the room. The ruling was attended with a series of sensations during the entire day. Chief of Police Harrigan came into the court and was promptly ordered out, as he was claimed to have arms in his George L. Judge Murphy said that he had disobeyed the order of the court, and in consequence he would find him guilty of contempt. The shment was assessed at ten days in jail. and a fine of $25. Possible Decapitation of Federal Officials on Charges of Whiteenpism.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 19.-A big sensation has been created in government circles here by telegrams from Washington that indicate a possible upheaval at this end of the line. It looks as if a wholesale decapitation of officeholders may follow the present visit to Washington of Internal Revenue Agent Chapman, Assistant District Attorney Rucke and Marshal Dunlap, and all, it seems, on account of sensational evidence in the White Cap cases that have been on trial here. The news comes that Deputy Collector Rembert, Storekeeper Cox and Watchman Carter of the collector's office have been dismissed from service the talk was of the possibility the head of Collector Trammell falling into the basket. It is but a few weeks since Captain Leverett, marshal of the southern district, was "fired," and these changes, coming so soon after that, have stirred the entire State. Rembert has been Collector Trammell's right-hand man. He was a member of the last Senate, when Trammell was Speaker pro tem. of the House, and they lived in adjoining counties A few days ago a reputable farmer of that section swore that Trammell and Rembert were members of the big White-cap organization, whose members were on trial, and it is presumed the "firing" of Rembert is a result of this. Trammell, who is here, says he knows nothing of the discharge or the cause of it, and the general opinion in offi-cial circles is that he is on the "ragged edge" himself. All these men are leading IMPROVED ORDER K. OF P.

New Society Organized by German Seceders-Mr. Seidensticker an Officer. BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 19.-About twenty-five delegates, representing as many lodges of Knights of Pythias, met at the Genesee Hotel last night and formed a new order to be known as the "Improved Order of Knights of Pythias." This convention is the outgrowth of the trouble that ensued after the supreme lodge at Washington, in August, decreed that the work of subordinate lodges must all be done in English and abolish all rituals in foreign languages Some of the lodges which had used a ritual in the German language for many years have seceded. The convention elected the following officers: Past Supreme Commander, Chas. H. Klee, of New York; Supreme Commander, George Seidensticker, of Indiana; Supreme Vice Commander, Conrad Kromer, of New York; Supreme Pre-late, Wm. Brakhagen, District of Columbia; Supreme Recording and Corresponding Scribe, Oscar Schloemann, of Michigan; Supreme Treasurer, F. W. Rossberg, of New York: Supreme Sergeant at Arms, Oscar Brede, of Michigan.

KNIGHTS MAY SECEDE. Probable Disruption of Sovereign's

Labor Organization. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 19.-The election of John McBride as president of the American Federation of Labor to succeed Samuel Gompers has caused quite a stir in labor circles in this city. Dr. A. H. P. Leuf, one of the most prominent labor leaders in this city, and a very strong Powderly follower, said to-day: "It is my belief that three national trades assemblies will soon secede from the ranks of the Knights. They are the mine workers, the glass workers and the brass workers. They represent 75 per cent. of the membership of the Knights. The mine workers are dissatisfied, and at the convention of the national organization at Columbus, O., in February, the matter of seceding from the Knights will be considered. That they will secede is most probable. I believe the glass worker and brass workers will also secede. The idea of the secessionists is to retain the name of the Knights of Labor and form a confederation with the American Federation of Labor."

Undecided Whether to Strike. PITTSBURG, Dec. 19.-The miners of this district are still undecided whether to make a fight against the 20 per cent. reduction in wages. At their convention in this city, to-day, a motion prevailed that the cut be resisted, but later this action was reversed, and it was decided to hold another meeting here on Friday to take final action. In the meantime the employes of each pit will hold meetings and instruct their delegates for Friday's meeting. If the miners do not strike the only reason will be that their organization is not financially strong enough for a long fight.

An Oil King's Wild Nephew Induced to Enter Uncle Sam's Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19 .- J. N. Langdon, of Philadelphia, nephew of John D. Rockefeller, the oil king, has enlisted in the navy and is to take a clerkship aboard the old ship Independence, at Mare Island yard. Langdon seems to have caused his rich relatives a deal of trouble. He arrived here some weeks ago from Japan, contracting a big bill at the Palace and California Hotels, and scattering checks about, which all came back dishonored. He was a guest at the University Club, where he left a large wine room account for his sponsor to settle and engaged in various financial operations, purchasing a $5,000 equipment from Studebaker's carriage house, for which he did not pay. Langdon's Eastern friends came to his rescue on the under standing, it is said, that he enter the navy, securing an easy berth with a very small

SCENE IN A MORGUE.

Supposed Dead Boy Turns Up While His Father Is Identifying a Body. CHICAGO, Dec. 19.-George H. Barbour the young insurance clerk supposed to have been murdered at Pana, Ill., walked into the morgue to-day when a half dozen of his associates had gathered to identify his body. Barbour's father was present and an affecting scene followed, the pair soon hurrying away to quiet the fears of the boy's mother who had firmly believed her son dead The body of a young man had been found buried near a railroad track at Pana and as young Barbour had disappeared Thanksgiving day his father went to view the body. The resemblance was perfect even to a tattooed arm, and the remains were fully identified by the father as those of his seventeen-year-old son. Some of the missing youth's associates, however, doubted the identity and a number of his fellow clerks were called in to-day to view the body. There was a difference of opinion and as the father was in the act of pointing out marks which he said proved conclusively that it was the body of his son, young Barbour appeared. He refused to say anything regarding his disappearance.

The Murdered Boy Identified. PANA, Ill., Dec. 19.-John Binnion, Vernon, Marion county, twelve miles south of Vandalia, arrived in this city and posttively identified clothing found on the murdered boy as those of his son, Arthur La Binnion. He went into hysterics when told of the initials "A. L. B." tattoed on the arm. A telegram was sent to Chicago to stop the interment of the remains taken there last night by William H. Barbour, who had claimed them as those of his son, who, however, turned up alive and well today. Harry Cummings, the East St. Louis suspect, was liberated to-day. Officers are now searching for Joseph Foster, a miner who left here early last week for Vernon, Ill, the home of the murdered Binnion boy in search of work. He was accompan by a miner named Cox. Failing to secure loyment Cox returned on the train Thursday. Foster said he would walk back, but has not returned, although he disappeared from Vernon about the same time Binnion left.

County Officials Meet-Treasurers Set. tling Under Protest.

A number of county officials were in conference at the Grand yesterday. They were members, in most cases, of the County Officers' Association of 1891, when the present fee and salary law was under consideration, but since that time there have not been questions that have interested enough of them to induce any considerable number to keep up the formal organization. However, R. A. Tucker, former president of the association, was present. The treasurers of counties were most numerous, and the chief discussion was as to what course they should pursue in settling with the State. Every treasurer that brings his county's quota of taxes to the Auditor of State notifies him that he is settling in the form of the new law under protest, Since the decision of the Supreme court, declaring the law as it applies to treasurers unconstitutional, some have settled under the laws of 1879, and County Treasurer Holt of this county is preparing his settlement in that form. The decision of the court is not final until it is certified down to the trial court, and the decision must be held for sixty days to permit a motion for a rehearing, if desired. This period has not yet expired, and there are daily settlements that are therefore thrown into confusion. The deck on of the court might by some possibility be overthrown by the court itself, if reasons sufficient for a grant of a rehearing should be presented. Prudence, therefore, dictates, the treasurers say, that settlements be made under protest, either under the new or the old law. The question has not yet reached an absolutely settled stage. lutely settled stage. The county officials yesterday declared that they would not support a bill that merely provided for salaries slone. They want a law that gives fees also. In the repealing the present law and substituting something not designed for party purposes. Liquor League Announces that It Will Control 75,000 Votes.

The organization of the State Liquor Dealers' League was completed at Mozart Hall yesterday afternoon. Officers were nominated and will be elected at a meeting to be held next Thursday. The league formulated a set of resolutions, in which the police department is severely arraigned. The league believes that the police should spend more time in protecting the wives and daughters of Indianapolis citizens when on the street than Y watching the saloon men on Sunday and after hours." The resolutions cond mn that class of persons who are termed "fanatics" on the liquor question. The league pledges itself to influence 75,000 votes in Indiana against any candidate who does not take a conservative view of the liquor traffic. These votes, the lea ue asserts, will be cast by men directly o nnected with the saloon and brewing interests of Indiana.. No ef-fort is to be made toward reducing or in-creasing the liquor license, and the resolutions declare that the league is not to antagonize law and order.
